

THE WORSHIPFUL COMPANY OF ARTS SCHOLARS

2019 Annual Banquet on the 5th Anniversary of full Livery status

---

Monday 11th February 2019

6.45 for 7.15 pm

Clothworkers' Hall

Dunster Court, Mincing Lane EC3R 7AH

The 2019 Company Annual Banquet will be held in Clothworkers' Hall. The Clothworkers' Company possesses an interesting collection of tapestries, plate, clocks and other works of art. This collection has been created, developed and preserved over the centuries despite the loss of previous halls to the Great Fire of London and the devastation of the Blitz. More information can be found at:

<https://www.clothworkers.co.uk/History/Collections.aspx>

The Lord Mayor Locum Tenens will present awards and the guest speaker will be Sir Timothy Clifford - art historian and director of the National Galleries of Scotland from 1984 to 2006.

Company members are invited to apply for reservations for themselves and their guests on the form attached. The cost is £110.00 (incl VAT) – the same price as the 2018 Banquet. The closing date for tickets will be 1st February 2019. However, it is suggested you apply early as it is a popular event and tickets get sold very quickly – there is a limit of 224 diners.

Dress: Evening Dress - White Tie (Dinner Jacket (white shirt with black tie) is acceptable)
Decorations and badges should be worn.
